What's Next?

Saturday May 24th, 2008 Clinic with Dave Duckett, FWCF

This spring the DFA is pleased to be hosting a clinic with one of the farrier industry's foremost experts on equine biomechanics, Dave Duckett. Among Mr. Duckett's recognition and achievements in the farrier industry are the following:

- Fellow of the Worshipful Company of Farriers - England's highest farriery credential.
- American Farriers Association "Outstanding Clinician" award.
- 1982 and 1987 World Champion Blacksmith title.
- International Horseshoeing Hall of Fame.

Duckett's work and the material he will present is based on the sciences of anatomy, physiology, physics and biomechanics. The clinic will include limb dissections and live shoeing prepared with writing material to take notes!
